Chelsey Antionette Bullock Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Jackson, MS—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Chelsey Antionette Bullock of Jackson, Mississippi, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y fellow, Bullock will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Bullock and the 30 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Bullock is a graduate of Mississippi State University, in Starkville, and is currently pursuing a master's degree in the mental health counseling program at Mississippi College, in Clinton. Upon graduation, Bullock intends to work with minority adolescents and less fortunate or disabled adolescents. This fellowship will offer new ideas for Bullock in achieving her goal of becoming a successful mental health counselor. Furthermore, this opportunity will also allow her to network with many amazing people who can contribute to and inspire her counseling career.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2016. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling.
