Daniel Cruz Lattimore Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Milwaukee, WI—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Daniel Cruz Lattimore of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y fellow, Lattimore will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Lattimore and the 30 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Lattimore is a graduate of the University of South Florida, in Tampa, and is currently pursuing a master's degree in the clinical mental health counseling program at Marquette University, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Upon graduation, Lattimore will enter a doctoral program to cultivate his interests in positive psychology, resilience, and therapeutic humor. He will aim to work with minority populations in university, workplace, and community settings, primarily with people of color. Being awarded this fellowship will allow Lattimore to broaden his multicultural knowledge, increase his capacity for empathy, strengthen his versatility in treating underserved people, travel to conferences, network with professionals within the field, and establish platforms for social justice.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2016. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

About the NBCC Foundation
