Elbert Smith Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Durham, NC—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Elbert Smith, of Durham, North Carolina, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Smith will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Smith and the 30 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Smith is a graduate of the University of Mount Olive, in North Carolina, and is currently a master's student in the school counseling program at North Carolina Central University, in Durham. A veteran, Smith plans to serve other veterans and transition-age minority youth to prevent marginalization and help them gain access to appropriate mental health services. This fellowship will allow Smith to attend counseling conferences to increase his professional competence as counselor. By learning evidence-based practices, Smith will be better able to advocate for these underserved populations and the counseling profession.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC Minority Fellowship Program application period in September 2017.
