Ileah-Mare Smith Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Southfield, MI—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Ileah-Mare Smith, of Southfield, Michigan, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Smith will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Smith and the 30 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Smith is a graduate of Oakland University, in Rochester, Michigan, and of Ashland Theological Seminary, in Southfield, Michigan, and is currently a master's student in the school counseling program at the University of Detroit Mercy, in Michigan. Upon graduation, Smith plans to work with populations who present with the greatest need, including at-risk youth with mental health issues and students from poor socioeconomic backgrounds. This fellowship will allow Smith to complete additional training that will focus on treatment practices to help those who suffer from addictions.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC Minority Fellowship Program application period in September 2017.
