FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jerilyn Adams Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Milwaukee, WI—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Jerilyn Adams, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Adams will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Adams and the 30 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Adams is a graduate of Ball State University, in Muncie, Indiana, and is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health counseling program at Marquette University, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. After graduation, Adams would like to work with transition-age minorities in the hospital setting. This fellowship will provide much needed support in funding a portion of Adams' master's program and extra training that would not otherwise be accessible. Adams hopes to use the training and connections from being an NBCC MFP fellow to continue fostering her counselor identity and help prepare her to best serve the populations that need it most.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC Minority Fellowship Program application period in September 2017.
