Letisha Belk Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Shannon, MS—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Letisha Belk of Shannon, Mississippi, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y fellow, Belk will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Belk and the 29 other master’s-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Belk is a graduate of The University of Mississippi-Tupelo and is currently pursuing a master’s in the counselor education program in the mental health track at the University of Mississippi, in Oxford. Upon graduation, Belk intends to work with transition-age minority youth, particularly those in the prison system, along with a diverse group of minorities whose lives and choices have led them down the same path. This fellowship will allow Belk the chance to continue pursuing her degree in order to become fully trained and capable of better serving her community and other rural areas.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 31 master’s-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2017. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org/Programs/Scholarships.
