Nuriéh Zarrin Glasgow Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Casper, WY—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Nuriéh Zarrin Glasgow of Casper, Wyoming, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y fellow, Glasgow will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Glasgow and the 29 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Glasgow is a graduate of Mills College, in Oakland, California, and is both a student and graduate of the University of Wyoming, in Laramie, where she is pursuing a master's in the mental health and school counseling programs. Upon graduation, Glasgow intends to work with transition-age minority youth, particularly those who are often unable to find counseling services that meet their experiences. She would also like to serve people living in rural areas, where mental health services are typically lacking, and work with the community on various issues of social justice and reconciliation. This fellowship will provide more opportunities for Glasgow to develop into a dynamic, approachable, holistic counselor, create positive change, reduce mental health stigmas, learn evidence-based practices to better serve underserved populations and advocate for the counseling profession and clients.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 31 master's-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2017.
