Renita L. Newton Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Hammond, LA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Renita L. Newton, of Hammond, Louisiana, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Newton will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Newton and the 30 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Newton is a graduate of Southeastern Louisiana University, in Hammond, and is currently a master's student in the counseling program at Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi. Upon graduation, Newton intends to work with the population of at-risk youth, particularly those who identify within the addictions spectrum. She would love to work with those classified as ethnic minorities and those residing in areas where there is a lack of mental health care services. This fellowship will allow Newton to attend conferences to strengthen her professional identity as a counselor, learn evidence-based practices to better serve underserved populations and advocate for the counseling profession.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC Minority Fellowship Program application period in September 2017.
