Tim Ashdown Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Baltimore, MD—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Tim Ashdown of Baltimore, Maryland, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y fellow, Ashdown will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Ashdown and the 30 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Ashdown is a graduate of Eastern University, in St. Davids, Pennsylvania, and is currently pursuing a master's degree in the pastoral counseling program at Loyola University Maryland, in Baltimore. After he becomes licensed as a professional counselor, Ashdown plans to address the great need for emerging adult counseling in the communities surrounding Baltimore. He sees the provision of long-term relational support as well as psychoeducational resources as critical for this age range. This fellowship will assist in allowing Tim to connect with this population in a meaningful and effective way.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in September 2016. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling.
