Chabreal Atkins McDaniel Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Tulsa, OK—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Chabreal Atkins McDaniel of Tulsa, Oklahoma, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, McDaniel will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to McDaniel and the 29 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. McDaniel is both a student and graduate of Oklahoma State University, in Stillwater, where she is pursuing a master's in mental health counseling. Upon graduation, McDaniel intends to work with transition-age minority youth, particularly low-income African-American females. She would also like to collaborate with school counselors to provide preventive measures for at-risk youth living in impoverished areas, where access to mental health services is typically unavailable. Receiving this fellowship will allow McDaniel to promote the counseling profession, advocate for minority transition-age youth and young adults, develop a professional identity as a counselor, and attend conferences that will increase her knowledge related to counseling minorities.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 34 master's-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 64,000 board-certified counselors in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
