Latonya M. Graham Awarded $20,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Fayetteville, NC—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Latonya M. Graham, of Fayetteville, North Carolina, for the National Board for Certified Counselors Minority Fellowship Program (NBCC MFP). As an NBCC MFP Fellow, Graham will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP is made possible by a grant first awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in August 2012. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to strengthen the infrastructure that engages diverse individuals in counseling and increases the number of professional counselors providing effective, culturally competent services to underserved populations.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $20,000 to Graham and the 22 other doctoral counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Graham is a graduate of the University of Alabama at Birmingham, and of Fayetteville State University, in North Carolina, and is currently a doctoral student in the counselor education program at North Carolina State University, in Raleigh. Graham's current research interest involves the examination of counselors' understanding and application of the revision to the latest American Counseling Association Code of Ethics pertaining to confidentiality and privacy for vulnerable populations living with and exposed to life-threatening communicable diseases. As a National Certified Counselor and Licensed Professional Counselor Supervisor, Graham's roles as FSU Center for Personal Development Director (Interim) and Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator allow her opportunities to positively influence the lives of underserved, marginalized youth, as well as other populations. In addition to her own professional development and continuing education, this fellowship will support Graham's goals to create guidelines and training materials for counselors to prepare them to ethically and legally fulfill their responsibilities as they relate to this recent code change.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y) and 34 master's-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION
