Erin R. Poore Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Charlotte, NC—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Erin R. Poore, of Charlotte, NC, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Poore will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $11,000 to Poore and the other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Poore is both a student and graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she is currently enrolled in the master's in addictions counseling program. Upon graduation, she intends to serve two transitioning populations: transition-age minority youth and U.S. soldiers transitioning home from active duty. This fellowship will enable her to not only complete the rest of her master's degree, but also to complete invaluable trainings related to transitioning minority youth and soldiers. Her goal is to become the best counselor she can be, and she is thankful to the Foundation for this opportunity.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in September 2015. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION
