NBCC Foundation Awards 2016 Scholarship to Christine E. Rehman

Asbury, NJ—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2016 NBCC Foundation Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS) training awards to Christine E. Rehman, of Asbury, New Jersey. The goal of this scholarship program is to increase the number of available Approved Clinical Supervisors. Rehman will receive $500 to support her attainment of the ACS credential.

Rehman works at the Family Guidance Center of Warren County, in Phillipsburg, New Jersey. She works in the outpatient department and serves adults and children who experience mental health and co-occurring issues. She is a National Certified Counselor, a Certified Clinical Mental Health Counselor, a Registered Art Therapist, a licensed alcohol and drug counselor, and a licensed professional counselor. Her specialties are anxiety, depression, ADHD and grief.

For more information or to make a donation, visit www.nbccf.org. CCE, a platinum sponsor of the Foundation, provides the grant funding for this award. More information about the ACS and other CCE credentials is available at www.cce-global.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 60,000 National Certified Counselors (NCCs) in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
