NBCC Foundation Awards 2016 Scholarship to Dannette Patterson

Savannah, GA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2016 NBCC Foundation Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS) training awards to Dannette Patterson, of Savannah, Georgia. The goal of this scholarship program is to increase the number of available Approved Clinical Supervisors. Patterson will receive $500 to support her attainment of the ACS credential.

Patterson is a doctoral candidate in counselor education and supervision at Argosy University–Atlanta, in Georgia. She currently provides counseling services to the military community. Her research interests include cultural awareness, military concerns, religion and spirituality, and counseling supervision practices. This award will help her expand her supervision skills through attending additional workshops and trainings in counselor education and supervision. Upon obtaining distinction as an Approved Clinical Supervisor, she plans to participate in the NBCC Foundation’s volunteer supervision program, to provide no-cost, effective and quality supervision to emerging clinical mental health counselors.

For more information or to make a donation, visit www.nbccf.org. CCE, a platinum sponsor of the Foundation, provides the grant funding for this award. More information about the ACS and other CCE credentials is available at www.cce-global.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation’s premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 60,000 National Certified Counselors (NCCs) in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation’s mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
