FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 25, 2017

Francesca Zulueta Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

San Rafael, CA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Francesca Zulueta, of San Rafael, California, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Zulueta will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Zulueta and the 30 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Zulueta is both a student and graduate of San Francisco State University, in California, where she is currently pursuing a master's degree in the marriage and family therapy and clinical rehabilitation and mental health counseling programs. Zulueta is committed to providing a high standard of care to underserved and disenfranchised transition-age minority youth impacted by the dangers of addiction. She would like to provide culturally competent therapy, particularly in communities affected by the cycle of institutional discrimination. Earning this fellowship will allow Zulueta to deepen her knowledge and understanding of addiction issues that affect minority cultures today. She aims to serve the needs of the most marginalized identities surrounding heritage, sexual orientation and disability.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC Minority Fellowship Program application period in September 2017.
