NBCC Foundation Awards 2016 Scholarship to Kristy Christopher-Holloway

Marietta, GA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2016 NBCC Foundation Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS) training awards to Kristy Christopher-Holloway, of Marietta, Georgia. The goal of this scholarship program is to increase the number of available Approved Clinical Supervisors. Christopher-Holloway will receive $500 to support her attainment of the ACS credential.

Christopher-Holloway is a licensed professional counselor, National Certified Counselor and Distance Credentialed Counselor. She owns a group private practice that offers affordable mental health care to those in need. She conducts workshops and presentations in her community to help dispel myths and stigma associated with mental health. She is currently a doctoral student at Argosy University—Atlanta, in Georgia, where she is beginning her dissertation research on religion and spirituality's role in the help-seeking behaviors of African-American women diagnosed with infertility. Christopher-Holloway also offers training and supervision to interns and newly licensed clinicians. This ACS award will allow her to become a credentialed supervisor to further aid in offering quality and ethical supervision.
