Lauren Ashley Broderick Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Hardyston, NJ—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Lauren Ashley Broderick, of Hardyston, New Jersey, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Broderick will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Broderick and the 17 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Broderick is a graduate of American University, in Washington, D.C., and is currently a master's student in the forensic psychology program at The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, in Washington, D.C. Upon graduation, Broderick hopes to work with transition-age youth and young adults, particularly those who have gone through the criminal justice system. She would like to work with individuals who have substance use and addiction disorders, in addition to marginalized populations who lack access to mental health services, specifically individuals convicted of sexual offenses. This fellowship will provide Broderick with the opportunity to expand her knowledge of substance use and addiction disorders as well as develop a professional identity as a counselor.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program, 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y) program, and 31 additional MFP-AC fellowships this year. The Foundation will open the next NBCC Minority Fellowship Program application period in September 2017.
