Marc V. Pimsler Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Marietta, GA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Marc V. Pimsler, of Marietta, Georgia, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Pimsler will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Pimsler and the 17 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Pimsler is both a student and graduate of Argosy University—Atlanta, in Georgia, where he is currently pursuing a master's in clinical mental health counseling. Pimsler is passionate about serving those seeking recovery from addictive disorders, especially working with transition-age youth as well as the LGBT community. Pimsler believes that recovery from addictions is not only possible but probable when clients encounter a competent, compassionate helping professional. Earning this fellowship will allow Pimsler to advance his professional identity by attending trainings, especially those focused on experiential therapy. Pimsler is excited to join the ranks of NBCC MFP Fellows and hopes to make a difference in the lives of his clients as well as the field of professional counseling.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program, 30 $8,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Youth (MFP-Y) program, and 31 additional MFP-AC fellowships this year. The Foundation will open the next NBCC Minority Fellowship Program application period in September 2017.
