Markie E. Gohman Awarded $11,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Colorado Springs, CO—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Markie E. Gohman, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC fellow, Gohman will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-AC, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute up to $11,000 to Gohman and the 29 other master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Gohman is a graduate of St. Cloud State University, in Minnesota, and is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health counseling program at the University of Colorado Colorado Springs. Upon graduation, Gohman intends to work with young adults struggling with addictions. She is dedicated to helping them build resilience, meet goals, and live healthy lifestyles free from addiction. Being chosen for this fellowship not only provides Gohman with financial assistance, but will also provide her with opportunities to continue developing her professional identity as a counselor through networking, conferences and support.

The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in September 2016. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit www.nbccf.org.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION
