NBCC Foundation Awards 2016 Scholarship to Michael S. Jones

Searcy, AR—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2016 Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE) professional development awards to Michael S. Jones, of Searcy, Arkansas. The goal of this scholarship program is to advance the professional identity and development of CCE credential holders. Jones will receive $500 to advance his professional identity and development.

Jones is part of the mental health counseling faculty at Messiah College, in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, and the owner of Renewed Vision Counseling Services, in Searcy, Arkansas. Jones has been a psychotherapist for over 13 years and has experience in substance abuse counseling, counselor education, clinical supervision and community-based mental health. He has a special focus on providing online counseling and has trained mental health professionals in over 30 states on how to implement technology as part of their counseling practice. He plans to use the funds from this award to advance his knowledge in distance counseling and supervision.

For more information or to make a donation, visit www.nbccf.org. CCE, a platinum sponsor of the Foundation, provides the funding for this award. More information about CCE credentials is available at www.cce-global.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 60,000 National Certified Counselors (NCCs) in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
