NBCC Foundation Awards 2015 Scholarship to Danielle R. LaSure-Bryant

Fort Washington, MD—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2015 Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE) professional development awards to Danielle R. LaSure-Bryant, of Fort Washington, Maryland. The goal of this scholarship program is to advance the professional identity and development of CCE credential holders. LaSure-Bryant will receive $500 to advance her professional identity and development.

LaSure-Bryant is the director of clinical education in the Department of Pastoral Counseling at Loyola University Maryland. She is also division director for pastoral counseling in the Loyola Clinical Centers. As an advocate for community service, LaSure-Bryant serves on the board of directors for Family Services, Inc., a nonprofit organization that serves the most vulnerable individuals, children and families through innovative education, child development and integrated behavioral services. LaSure-Bryant's other service activities include serving on the governor-appointed Citizens Advisory Board for the Clifton T. Perkins Hospital Center and as a disaster mental health worker for the American Red Cross.

For more information or to make a donation, visit www.nbccf.org. CCE, a platinum sponsor of the Foundation, provides the funding for this award. More information about CCE credentials is available at www.cce-global.org.

About the NBCC Foundation

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling. Currently, there are more than 60,000 National Certified Counselors (NCCs) in the United States and more than 50 countries. The Foundation's mission is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change.
