NBCC Foundation Awards 2016 Scholarship to Stacey M. Kaminski

Lake City, MI—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2016 NBCC Foundation Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS) training awards to Stacey M. Kaminski, of Lake City, Michigan. The goal of this scholarship program is to increase the number of available Approved Clinical Supervisors. Kaminski will receive $500 to support her attainment of the ACS credential.

Kaminski is currently a crisis supervisor for local community mental health agency in a rural area of Northern Michigan. This community mental health agency covers six counties, serving individuals with severe and persistent mental illness. While Kaminski currently supervises three crisis services teams, she has dedicated herself to working with the economically disadvantaged as well as individuals with mental illness who are incarcerated. She has been serving this population for over six years. This award will increase her skills and allow her to receive further training in order to effectively, and efficiently continue to serve this population.
