NBCC Foundation Awards 2016 Scholarship to Tia Marie Roy

Haverhill, MA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2016 Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE) professional development awards to Tia Marie Roy, of Haverhill, Massachusetts. The goal of this scholarship program is to advance the professional identity and development of CCE credential holders. Roy will receive $500 to advance her professional identity and development.

Roy is a second-year graduate student in the higher education and student affairs program at the University of Connecticut (UConn), in Storrs. Upon graduation, she will pursue a career in assisting students with their career and professional development. She currently serves as the graduate assistant in off-campus student services where she supports and engages over 10,000 UConn students who live off campus. In addition, she serves as a practicum student in UConn's Center for Career Development, where she offers career counseling to undergraduate and graduate students, as well as provides résumé critiques, job search strategies and interview preparation. Roy has presented at over 10 regional and national conferences on student success, with a focus on career success. She is also the communications coordinator for the American Association of University Women (AAUW) of Massachusetts.
