NBCC Foundation Awards 2018 Scholarship to Warren Corson III

Bristol, CT—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2018 Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE) professional development awards to Warren Corson III, of Bristol, Connecticut. The goal of this scholarship program is to advance the professional identity and development of CCE credential holders. Dr. Corson will receive $500 to advance his professional identity and development.

Dr. Corson is the founder and Clinical & Executive Director of the family run charity, Community Counseling Centers of Central CT Inc. and Pillwillop Therapeutic Farm (www.docwarren.org)—a nonprofit dedicated to treating people, not privilege. He has spent his career working in the nonprofit sector in order to help level the playing field so that all people can have equal access to high quality mental health care. He holds many advanced degrees and is a Licensed Professional Counselor, National Certified Counselor, certified school counselor, Approved Clinical Supervisor, Canadian Certified Counsellor, and a Canadian Certified Counsellor Supervisor. He has contributed to clinical textbooks and also written columns for Counseling Today magazine as an online exclusive columnist and several news organizations. He currently is a blogger for the American Counseling Association and the Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association where he also serves as an Ambassador. Outside the profession, he is a farmer and welder, restores classic vehicles, and promotes hands-on trades through his workshop “Corson Garage.”
