Sahaj Kohli Awarded $10,000 Counseling Fellowship From the NBCC Foundation

Washington, DC—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Sahaj Kohli of Washington, DC, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M). As an NBCC MFP-MHC-M Fellow, Kohli will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved populations.

The NBCC MFP-MHC-M is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The NBCC Foundation administers the MFP-MHC-M, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all board certified counselors. The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of professional counselors providing effective, culturally competent services to underserved populations.

The NBCC Foundation will distribute $10,000 to Kohli and the other 29 master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Kohli is a graduate of The City University of New York, School of Professional Studies and is currently enrolled at The George Washington University, where she is pursuing a master's degree in the clinical mental health counseling program.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the MFP and 40 master's-level fellowships of $15,000 through the MFP for Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The NBCC Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-MHC-M application period in fall 2020. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows.
