Sunnycho Teeling Awarded $20,000 Counseling Fellowship From the NBCC Foundation

Sumner, IA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Sunnycho Teeling, of Sumner, Iowa, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program for Doctoral Counselors (NBCC MFP). As an NBCC MFP Doctoral Fellow, Teeling will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved populations.

The NBCC MFP is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The NBCC Foundation administers the MFP, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all board certified counselors. The goal of the program is to strengthen the infrastructure that engages diverse individuals in counseling and increases the number of professional counselors providing effective, culturally competent services to underserved populations.

The NBCC Foundation will distribute $20,000 to Teeling and the other 19 doctoral counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Teeling is a graduate of Upper Iowa University and the University of Northern Iowa, and she is currently a doctoral student in the counseling program at the University of North Texas (UNT). At UNT, one of her roles is serving minority clients by providing counseling and assessment services. Her research interests include how mixed race children navigate the intersectionality of their racial and ethnic identities, the impact this process has on their development, and how their mental health is influenced throughout this process. This fellowship will help her to become more involved in her research through direct service, advocacy for underserved minority populations, education and training, and outreach activities.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 30 $10,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M) and 40 master's-level fellowships of $15,000 through the MFP for Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The NBCC Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP application period in fall 2020. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows.
