Tori Press Awarded $10,000 Counseling Fellowship From the NBCC Foundation

LaPlace, LA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Tori Press of LaPlace, Louisiana, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M). As an NBCC MFP-MHC-M Fellow, Press will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved populations.

The NBCC MFP-MHC-M is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The NBCC Foundation administers the MFP-MHC-M, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all board certified counselors. The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of professional counselors providing effective, culturally competent services to underserved populations.

The NBCC Foundation will distribute $10,000 to Press and the other 29 master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Press is a graduate of The University of Louisiana at Lafayette and is currently enrolled at Louisiana State University, where she is pursuing a master's degree in the school counseling program. Upon graduation, Press intends to work with adolescents and implement interventions with a focus on college and career development. She would also like to partner with college programs that holistically support the transition of first-generation college students into postsecondary institutions. Earning this fellowship will allow Press to attend professional trainings that will foster her professional growth as a counselor and learn evidence-based practices to better assist her clients.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the MFP and 40 master's-level fellowships of $15,000 through the MFP for Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The NBCC Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-MHC-M application period in fall 2020. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows.
