NBCC Foundation Awards Scholarship to Constance Lewis Cromartie

Roswell, GA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded a 2020–2021 Center for Credentialing & Education \(CCE\) Approved Clinical Supervisor \(ACS\) training award to Constance Lewis Cromartie, of Roswell, Georgia. The goal of this scholarship, provided through funding from CCE, is to increase the number of available CCE Approved Clinical Supervisors. Cromartie will receive $500 to support her attainment of the CCE ACS credential.

Constance Cromartie is a minister and a Licensed Professional Counselor in a private professional counseling practice in Georgia. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and her Master of Arts and Educational Specialist degree in community counseling (clinical mental health counseling) from James Madison University. Ms. Cromartie is currently pursuing her PhD in counselor education and supervision at the University of Georgia. She holds the National Certified Counselor (NCC) certification from the National Board for Certified Counselors, and she also holds the Certified Professional Counselor Supervisor (CPCS) certification in the state of Georgia.

Ms. Cromartie has extensive experience as a supervisor and working with diverse underserved individuals affected by mental health disorders, trauma, and other adverse issues. She is a member of the Licensed Professional Counselors Association of Georgia, and the American Counseling Association. Her goals as a CCE ACS are to encourage and provide appropriate nationwide gatekeeping for the counseling profession and advance the professional competencies of a diverse population of supervisees in their work with all, but especially marginalized and stigmatized, populations.

The mission of the NBCC Foundation is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change. The NBCC Foundation in collaboration with CCE provides training awards and scholarships to assist counseling and other professionals in attaining CCE credentials and to support and increase their ongoing professional development and continuing education opportunities.
