NBCC Foundation Awards Scholarship to Nena Tahil

Jacksonville, FL—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded a 2020–2021 Board Certified Coach (BCC) training award to Nena Tahil, of Jacksonville, Florida. The goal of this scholarship, provided through funding from the Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE), is to increase the number of available Board Certified Coaches. Tahil will receive up to $3,000 towards the cost of an approved BCC training.

Nena Tahil is a Licensed Metal Health Counselor in Florida and is a Board Certified-TeleMental Health Provider. She received her Bachelor of Arts from Fordham University in New York City, with a major in psychology and a minor in computer sciences; Master of Public Health from Columbia University School of Public Health in New York City, with a concentration in health planning and policy; and a Master of Science in clinical mental health counseling from the University of North Florida in Jacksonville. For over 25 years she has dedicated her career to empowering and improving lives of those who are marginalized, under-represented and faced with life challenges.

Ms. Tahil's counseling specialization is resiliency enhancement, assisting people with life transition issues and crisis management. She has served on several boards, including the North Florida Mental Health Counseling Association. With enhanced coaching knowledge, Ms. Tahil's goal as a BCC is to help others in the helping profession. Her aim is to be the "counselor's coach."

The mission of the NBCC Foundation is to leverage the power of counseling by strategically focusing resources for positive change. The NBCC Foundation in collaboration with CCE provides training awards and scholarships to assist counseling and other professionals in attaining CCE credentials and to support and increase their ongoing professional development and continuing education opportunities.

For more information about NBCC Foundation scholarship opportunities as well as CCE-sponsored scholarships, visit nbccf.org. More information about the BCC and other CCE credentials is available at cce-global.org.
