Chase Andrew Klingshirn Awarded $15,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Lorain, OH—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Chase Andrew Klingshirn, of Lorain, Ohio, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Klingshirn will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his addictions counseling service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation in collaboration with the Association for Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Foundation administers the MFP-AC, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC Foundation MFP will distribute up to $15,000 to Klingshirn and the other 39 master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Klingshirn is a graduate of the University of Mount Union, in Alliance, Ohio, and is currently a master's student in the marriage and family therapy program at The University of Akron, in Ohio. Upon graduation, Klingshirn intends to work with families and adolescents, particularly those with substance abuse issues and those with severe and persistent mental illness. He would also like to work with ethnically and culturally diverse populations who typically have difficulty obtaining necessary services. Earning this fellowship will allow Klingshirn to attend counseling conferences to establish a stronger professional identity as a therapist, learn evidence-based practices to better serve these aforementioned populations, and advocate for the counseling profession.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $10,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in fall 2019. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION

The NBCC Foundation is the nonprofit affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), based in Greensboro, North Carolina. NBCC is the nation's premier professional certification board devoted to credentialing counselors who meet standards for the general and specialty practices of professional counseling.
