Christine Ann McAllister Awarded $10,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Youngstown, OH—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Christine Ann McAllister of Youngstown, Ohio, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program Mental Health Counseling-Master’s (MFP-MHC-M). As an NBCC MFP-MHC-M Fellow, McAllister will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP-MHC-M is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Foundation administers the MFP, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC Foundation MFP will distribute up to $10,000 to McAllister and the other 29 master’s-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. McAllister is a graduate of Converse College, in Spartanburg, South Carolina, and is currently a master’s student in the clinical mental health counseling program at Youngstown State University, in Ohio. Upon graduation, McAllister intends to work with minority populations, particularly those who identify within the gender and sexual/affectual minority spectrum. Earning this fellowship will allow McAllister to attend counseling conferences to develop a professional identity as a counselor, learn culturally competent and social justice practices, and advocate for the counseling profession. She also aims to reduce the stigma surrounding mental health issues and encourage help-seeking behaviors, especially for populations who are underserved.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 40 master’s-level fellowships of $15,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MHC-M application period in fall 2019. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.

About the NBCC Foundation
