NBCC Foundation Awards 2019 Scholarship to CodyAnne L. Chambers

Ripley, NY—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2019 Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE) professional development awards to Mrs. CodyAnne L. Chambers, of Ripley, New York. The goal of this scholarship program is to advance the professional identity and development of CCE credential holders. Mrs. Chambers will receive $500 to advance her professional identity and development.

Mrs. Chambers is an employment facilitator currently partnering with the local probation office to provide cognitive behavioral interventions as well as job readiness training to high-risk probationers. She has been an advocate for the justice-involved population, making our communities safer by reducing recidivism with evidence-based programming. Mrs. Chambers is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor and Global Career Development Facilitator. In addition, she holds several facilitation certifications from the National Institute of Corrections, allowing her to train professionals from across the state in workforce development and employment retention. She recently became a Bridges Out of Poverty trainer as well. Mrs. Chambers's goal is to leave people with a new perspective and a hunger for more knowledge.
