Farahdeba Herrawi Awarded $10,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Las Vegas, NV—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Farahdeba Herrawi of Las Vegas, Nevada, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program Mental Health Counseling-Master’s (MFP-MHC-M). As an NBCC MFP-MHC-M Fellow, Herrawi will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP-MHC-M is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Foundation administers the MFP, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC Foundation MFP will distribute up to $10,000 to Herrawi and the other 29 master’s-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Herrawi is a graduate of the University of Nevada, in Reno, and is currently a master’s student in the mental health counseling and behavioral medicine program at Boston University School of Medicine, in Massachusetts. Upon graduation, Herrawi wants to be a part of the movement in providing evidence-based culturally sensitive mental health care services for those individuals who face disparity and displacement because of their differences, specifically in refugee and immigrant populations. Earning this fellowship will allow Herrawi to develop the necessary skills to better serve refugee and immigrant communities, to learn effective therapeutic interventions for culturally diverse clients, and to advocate for the mental health counseling profession.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 40 master’s-level fellowships of $15,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MHC-M application period in fall 2019. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.

About the NBCC Foundation
