Lee-Andre Garvin Awarded $15,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Savannah, GA—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Lee-Andre Garvin, of Savannah, Georgia, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Garvin will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his addictions counseling service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation in collaboration with the Association for Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Foundation administers the MFP-AC, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC Foundation MFP will distribute up to $15,000 to Garvin and the other 39 master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Garvin is a graduate of the University of Georgia, in Athens, and is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health counseling program at the University of Denver, in Colorado. Upon graduation, Garvin intends to work with transition-age youth suffering from substance abuse disorders. He would also like to work with members of the population suffering from infectious diseases. Earning this fellowship will allow Garvin to further ingratiate himself into the field of substance abuse and allow him the chance to network and learn more about helping those in need.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $10,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in fall 2019. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.

ABOUT THE NBCC FOUNDATION
