Rhiannon Doyle Awarded $15,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Albuquerque, NM—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Rhiannon Doyle, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Doyle will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation in collaboration with the Association for Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Foundation administers the MFP-AC, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC Foundation MFP will distribute up to $15,000 to Doyle and the other 39 master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Doyle is both a student and graduate of The University of New Mexico, in Albuquerque, where she is currently pursuing a master's degree in the clinical mental health counseling program. Doyle lives in New Mexico, which has many rural communities and is classified as a minority-majority state. Doyle understands that New Mexico has serious issues regarding substance use disorders, and this fellowship will allow her to work with and affect significant change with the diverse population. This fellowship will also allow Doyle the opportunity to collaborate with others in the counseling community to improve her counseling skills and techniques as well as foster professional relationships.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $10,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in fall 2019. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.
