Samuel R. Sheeley Awarded $15,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Nashville, TN—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Samuel R. Sheeley, of Nashville, Tennessee, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Sheeley will receive funding and training to support his education and facilitate his addictions counseling service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation in collaboration with the Association for Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Foundation administers the MFP-AC, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC Foundation MFP will distribute up to $15,000 to Sheeley and the other 39 master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Sheeley is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University, in Bloomington, and is currently a master's student in the clinical mental health counseling program at Lipscomb University, in Nashville, Tennessee. Sheeley intends to work with youth, particularly those struggling with substance use issues. Many times adolescents and their mental health needs can be overlooked. Earning this fellowship will allow Sheeley to learn from veterans and experts in the mental health field. The fellowship provides mentorship and counseling conference opportunities to help develop and grow Sheeley as a future clinician and equip him with tools to better serve those who are underserved.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $10,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in fall 2019. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.
