Tanya Martinez-Cardenas Awarded $15,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Kyle, TX—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Tanya Martinez-Cardenas, of Kyle, Texas, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). As an NBCC MFP-AC Fellow, Martinez-Cardenas will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her addictions counseling service to underserved minority populations.

The NBCC MFP-AC is made possible by a grant awarded to the NBCC Foundation in collaboration with the Association for Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The Foundation administers the MFP-AC, including training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the available number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC Foundation MFP will distribute up to $15,000 to Martinez-Cardenas and the other 39 master's-level addictions counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Martinez-Cardenas is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin, and of Texas State University, in San Marcos, and is currently a master's student in the addictions counseling program at Texas Tech University, in Lubbock. Upon graduation, Martinez-Cardenas intends to work with youth, women, and veterans who identify within the minority spectrum and can't afford mental health services. Earning this fellowship will allow Martinez-Cardenas to attend counseling conferences to establish a stronger professional identity as a counselor and advocate for the counseling profession. She looks forward to helping those who want to overcome addiction and live the life they were always meant to.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 20 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 30 $10,000 master's-level fellowships through the MFP-Mental Health Counseling-Master's (MFP-MHC-M). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-AC application period in fall 2019. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.
