Angelica Hernandez Awarded $8,000 Counseling Fellowship From NBCC and Affiliates

Weslaco, TX—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC), recently selected Angelica Hernandez of Weslaco, Texas, for the NBCC Minority Fellowship Program-Youth (MFP-Y). As an NBCC MFP-Y Fellow, Hernandez will receive funding and training to support her education and facilitate her service to underserved minority populations, with a specific focus on transition-age youth (ages 16–25).

The NBCC MFP-Y is made possible by a grant awarded to NBCC by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in September 2014. The Foundation is contracted by NBCC to administer the NBCC MFP-Y, as well as training and collaboration activities, such as webinars, that are open to all National Certified Counselors (NCCs). The goal of the program is to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health care outcomes for racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of available culturally competent behavioral health professionals.

The NBCC MFP will distribute $8,000 education awards to Hernandez and the 29 other master's-level counseling students selected to receive the fellowship award. Hernandez is a graduate of the University of North Texas, in Denton, and is currently pursuing a master's in the professional counseling program at Texas State University, in San Marcos. After graduation, Hernandez plans to work with minority adolescents living in underprivileged communities. Her focus lies in serving immigrant youth and their families who may not otherwise have access to services. Hernandez hopes this fellowship will help increase her advocacy skills to promote the betterment of minority youth lives on all levels.

The NBCC Foundation has also awarded 23 $20,000 doctoral fellowships through the Minority Fellowship Program and 34 master's-level fellowships of up to $11,000 through the MFP-Addictions Counselors (MFP-AC). The Foundation plans to open the next NBCC MFP-Y application period in fall 2018. To learn more about the NBCC MFP and its fellows, please visit <http://www.nbccf.org/Programs/Fellows>.
